Owner of Dewey's Coffee House Ready for Retirement after 15 Years at Shaker Square

CLEVELAND, OH, May 31, 2019 – Dewey's Coffee House is the essence of "a real coffee shop, in a real neighborhood, for real people" according to a customer of the historic coffee house at Shaker Square. After 15 years of serving as host at the neighborhood's favorite gathering spot, the time has come for owner Dewey Forward to move on to the next chapter in his life: a comfortable retirement.

To thank Dewey for the legacy he leaves to the Shaker Square community and to honor the tradition of "peace and love" that Dewey's created on the corner of Shaker Square and North Moreland, Shaker Square is asking the community to join the Square in making a contribution to a charitable organization selected by Dewey - The Gathering Place. Dewey, moved by the tribute from his friends and colleagues at the Square, said "What a special honor. I'm grateful that my retirement will serve to support programs for those touched by cancer."

To join in honoring Dewey, those who would like to contribute can go to www.touchedbycancer.org and donate to The Gathering Place "In honor of Dewey Forward".

A new business will be coming to Shaker Square to continue Dewey's legacy. An announcement will be forthcoming soon of a business that will add to the "Night and Day" personality of Shaker Square and offer the same quality of service that has been Dewey's signature – for 15 years.

For news, events, and what's coming next in the space, visit Shaker Square's website at www.visitshakersquare.com or follow on Facebook at www.facebook.com/shakersquarecleveland.
